CONSOLIDATED HEALTH PLANS' AFFILIATE ACCIDENT & HEALTH INSURANCE COMPANIES RECEIVE A++ (SUPERIOR) A.M. BEST RATINGS

SPRINGFIELD, MA – January 17, 2017 – Consolidated Health Plans (CHP), a Springfield, Massachusetts-based Berkshire Hathaway subsidiary, announced that its accident and health insurance company affiliates, Atlanta International Insurance Company (AIIC), and Commercial Casualty Insurance Company (CCIC), received A.M. Best financial strength ratings of A++ (Superior) as of Dec. 21, 2016.

AIIC and CCIC are in the process of working with state regulators across the country to complete state rate and form filings for student accident and health insurance. Collectively, these approvals will position CHP to provide a long-term commitment to colleges and universities with student health insurance solutions for the 2017-18 academic year and beyond.

About Consolidated Health Plans (CHP)

Founded in 1993, CHP's mission is to provide superior insurance solutions by being accessible, responsive, and flexible.
